GTO Association of Maine October 2000

OPENING REMARKS

It's Officially Fall. I love the weather this time of year but there's so much to do. Boat to cover, cars to winterize, and the brick wall behind the wood stove needs to be finished. Calm, calm, concentrate on one task at a time. Right now it's the GTOAM newsletter. Tomorrow night a few more bricks, then get it together to leave for Carlisle. The following weekend it's the GTOAM Fall Cruise, then Stafford Springs. There's also the boat, the cars, the pool, the bricks....calm, calm, one thing at a time. Remember "Moderation is the key!!"

CONVERTIBLE SHOW

What a weekend. Lunch at Gritty's, shopping in Freeport, lobster bake in Boothbay Harbor, breakfast buffet, and the convertible show at OHTM. You couldn't ask for a nicer crowd than the Nor_Eastern folks. Not to mention about 20 Pontiacs parked together at OHTM
